

SENATOR MILLS IS OPPOSED TO BONDS

MAKES A STRONG PROTEST AGAINST THE ISSUE.

The Texas Statesman Talks of a Bank Conspiracy—"A Public Crime," Says Senator Peffer—Pension Debate Continued in the House—General Washington News.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Senator Mills' speech on finance, with frequent direct criticisms of the president and secretary of the treasury, was the main feature of Wednesday's session of the senate. There was added interest in the speech from the fact that Mr. Mills has been prominent in the senate as champion of the presidential policy. Mr. Peffer followed with a speech against bonds and in favor of silver coinage. During the day Mr. Pugh (Dem., Ala.) gave notice that on Monday next he would press to a vote without debate a resolution that all government obligations should be paid in either silver or gold.

Mr. Sherman secured the floor shortly after the session of the senate began and presented an adverse report on the bill prohibiting citizens of the United States from accepting any titles, decorations, etc., from foreign nations. He reported favorably a joint resolution appropriating $75,000 for the expenses of the commission engaged in fixing the boundary between Alaska and British America along the line of the 141st meridian of west longitude. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Mills (Dem., Tex.) then took the floor in support of his resolution introduced on Tuesday concerning silver, bonds, etc. He first drew attention to the long continued antagonism to silver and the present locking up of the accumulation of silver in the treasury vaults, due, he said, to the powerful influence in this country claiming that the prerogative of issuing money should be given to corporations, to expand and contract as they please. The national bank idea was not a Democratic idea, the Democratic policy favoring the retention by the government and the people of the money-making prerogative. Mr. Mills showed the contractions and expansions of the circulation made by the banks and said this system was now to be perpetuated by further issues of bonds. Whenever the verdict of the people had been taken it had been in favor of the legal-tender notes. The people had always stood against bonds and bank circulation. He differed with the president on this subject and he regretted it. But this was a country of free discussion, and the difference with the president and the secretary of the treasury existed in spite of high personal regard for them. The president wanted more bonds, adding to the people's burden and imposing this burden on our children and our children's children.

Mr. Gray asked if Mr. Mills believed in notes which were never redeemed—in short in fiat money.

Mr. Mills rejected the idea that legal-tender notes were fiat and explained the theory of fiat money. If the secretary of the treasury had coined the silver in the treasury and paid it for current expenses, there would have been no deficit. The president's bond issues were futile. It was like pouring water through a sieve. The $100,000,000 issue a few days hence would be followed by another $100,000,000 in a few months. This bank power threatened to wield a controlling power in the senate, the house of representatives, the executive branches and the United States Supreme Court. This last branch had grown so powerful that it could almost decree monarchy in the United States. That would be no more absurd than the decision against the income tax overruling the decisions of a hundred years. The senator closed with a strong expression of his purpose to at all times resist the growing influence of the bank power.

The silver bond bill was taken up at 2 o'clock, and Mr. Peffer (Pop., Kan.) addressed the senate. He said the speech of Mr. Mills had at least justified the Populist party. Mr. Peffer urged in particular the repeal of all laws authorizing the issuing of bonds. He yielded the floor to permit Mr. Pugh (Dem., Ala.) to offer a resolution similar in text historically known as the "Stanley Matthews resolution" for the payment of government obligations in either coin—gold or silver. Mr. Pugh gave notice that he would ask a vote on this resolution on Monday.

Resuming, Mr. Peffer said the Populist party would properly arrange the parity of the metals when it came in power, and he thought that time was close at hand. The senator said the bond policy of the president was little else than a "great public crime." On motion of Mr. Wolcott (Rep., Col.) the senate agreed that the adjournment would be until Monday. At 4:15 the senate went into executive session and at 4:25 p. m. adjourned.

HOUSE DISCUSSES PENSIONS.

Administration Criticized by Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Another day was consumed by the house Wednesday in oratory upon the pension appropriation bill. The most notable incident of the debate was the attack made by Mr. Grow (Pa.) upon what he termed the extraordinary attempt by the president and his clerks to encroach upon the prerogatives of the legislative branch of the government. He denounced Secretary Carlisle for sending a financial bill to congress and the action of the president in having read the famous letter to Mr. Catchings on the Wilson bill just before a vote on the bill, which he said was an attempt to influence the vote. Congress should resist such encroachments upon its prerogatives, Mr. Grow declared.

A "free home" bill, making actual residence on railroad land grants unnecessary where the lands have been fenced and improved, was passed.

On motion of Mr. W. A. Stone (rep., Pa.) the house went into committee of the whole on the pension appropriation bill. Mr. Walsh (dem., N. Y.) did not think that provision of the law a proper one which compels a widow to show that she depends upon her daily labor for support before she can secure a pension. Mr. McCall (rep., Tenn.) believed the pension laws are good, but were not enforced in the proper spirit. Mr. Hanley (rep., Ind.) spoke in favor of an amendment providing for the restoration to the rolls of pensioners dropped therefrom. Mr. Milnes (rep., Mich.) wanted every soldier who served ninety days to have a pension. Mr. Low (rep., N. Y.) and Mr. Spalding (rep., Mich.) spoke in favor of the bill, and both believed a pension should be a vested right. Mr. Pickler (rep., S. D.), chairman of the committee on invalid pensions, stated that the present bill did not, in the estimation of the committee, go far enough. The committee would draw up and present a bill bearing on the administration of pension laws and to facilitate the taking of testimony. At 4:05 p. m. the house adjourned until today.

ACTION IS POSTPONED.

Senator Davis' Resolution Discussed by Senate Foreign Affairs Committee.

Washington, Jan. 16.—At the meeting of the senate committee on foreign relations yesterday the resolution prepared by Senator Davis defining the attitude of this country towards foreign encroachment on the western hemisphere in accordance with the Monroe doctrine was reported to the committee. The resolution was discussed at some length, but final consideration was postponed until next Friday, when a special meeting of the committee will be held to consider the resolution and the entire subject which it covers.

While the committee is almost unanimous in advocacy of such a declaration there is some objection, especially on the part of Senator Gray, who expressed the opinion that unless the declaration was modified in some particulars it might lead to complications which could be avoided by proper care at this time. Other members also consider the problem one of such magnitude and involving so many possible contingencies as to render it important to avoid the appearance of undue haste. The text of the resolution was not given out, but it is understood that it is a strong and concise declaration, asserting the American doctrine in unmistakable terms.

The Cuban and Armenian questions were not adverted to at the meeting, nor were the Venezuelan complication except as they came up in connection with the Monroe doctrine resolution.

Senator Allison Re-elected.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 16.—The republicans in caucus assembled yesterday formally decided upon the name of Senator Allison for presentation to the general assembly when it meets next Tuesday for the election of a United States senator. Mr. Allison was present at the caucus. Lyman Ellis, senator from Clinton county, presented his name. Speeches were made by Senator Healy and Representatives Temple and McArthur. Great enthusiasm prevailed. At the conclusion of the speeches, Allison received the unanimous vote of the caucus for nomination and was declared the nominee. In accepting the nomination, Senator Allison made a brief speech.

Two Iowa Bankers in Jail.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 16.—Yesterday morning D. T. and J. H. D. Stanley, president and cashier of the Bank of Commerce, which failed Tuesday, were arrested and brought before Justice Silvara for arraignment. They were charged with fraudulent banking. Justice Silvara fixed their bonds at $800 each, and as they were unable to secure bondsmen, they were at once committed to the county jail. A sudden call upon them, made by an eastern firm, for the payment of outstanding indebtedness was the cause of the failure. Nevertheless it is charged they received deposits up to within an hour of the time they failed.

Miners Ready to Fight.

Creede, Colo., Jan. 16.—Unless a compromise is effected between the United Mine Leasing company and its employees it seems likely there will be bloodshed in a day or two. The company suspended operations Tuesday, and before the men could file a lien on the other property for their unpaid wages, the manager of the Amethyst Mining company appeared with papers showing the title to the $14,000 pump and prepared to remove it. The employees of the leasing company armed themselves and drove the others away, and have since held possession.

Nebraska Bank Suspend.

Wauneta, Neb., Jan. 16.—The Bank of Wauneta, S. C. Henry, cashier, failed to open its doors yesterday. The failure is caused by complication with the Bank of Stratton, which failed Monday.

HOW THE SYNDICATE CAME TO DISSOLVE

WHY THE COMBINATION OF BANKERS BROKE UP.

The Men Who Gave Pledges to J. P. Morgan & Co. Are Released From Their Obligations—Mr. Morgan's Explanation—The "All or None" Clause Was Responsible.

New York, Jan. 16.—The bond syndicate has been dissolved. Members of the syndicate received in their mail yesterday a circular letter from J. P. Morgan & Co. releasing them from their commitments to furnish their pro rata of $100,000,000 in gold and a second $100,000,000 if desirable, taking their payment therefor in a 4 per cent government bond. Accompanying the letter was a circular explaining why the syndicate was formed, what action was taken on its behalf, and why it is now dissolved.

"On the 23d of December," Mr. Morgan says, "I was invited to Washington for a conference. During my visit there no negotiations for a loan were even suggested, nor was there then nor since any agreement or request that I should take any steps preparatory to making a contract. I came, however, to the conclusion that the president and secretary of the treasury would use every power at their command to restore and maintain the gold reserve; that no steps would be taken until it was ascertained what congress would do; that the executive department would prefer to secure $200,000,000 of gold and that it was certain that no relief could be obtained from congress.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

"Upon my return, appreciating the gravity of the situation, and in order that I might be prepared to act promptly, I took steps to ascertain to what extent it would be possible to secure the co-operation of capitalists in forming a syndicate which would agree to sell to the United States government $200,000,000 of gold coin. The contract prepared and signed by the participants did not stipulate whether the purchase would be by private contract or by public offer.

"The only provision in addition to the important one that no gold should be withdrawn from the treasury was that the minimum amount of the contract should be $100,000,000, the maximum not over $200,000,000. The applications far exceeded my expectations. At the end of three or four days the total of $200,000,000 was reached and I had full authority which would enable me, whenever and however the executive might decide to act, to secure that amount of gold for the treasury reserve in exchange for United States bonds.

"Having completed the syndicate, I entered into negotiations in Europe and in places other than London, where the market was closed to us, and through the Deutsche bank and Messrs. Morgan, Harjes & Co., negotiations were practically concluded for public subscriptions in Germany, France and Holland which would have resulted in a large amount of bonds being placed in those countries.

"On Jan. 4, realizing that the tension was growing daily and had become serious, I addressed a letter to the president, calling his attention to the situation and representing that the most important step was the restoration of the government credit by replenishing the stock of gold. Details of what was proposed were given and assurances offered that the utmost efforts would be made to procure for the treasury $150,000,000 of gold."

The reason given for the dissolution of the syndicate is that the syndicate contract called for a bid of "all or none" and therefore Mr. Morgan was unwilling to make a bid under the present circumstances, as he might seem to present for consideration by the secretary of the treasury the throwing out of smaller bids made in good faith under the public call.

The only emergency, in Mr. Morgan's judgment, which would justify such a course would be the failure of the public to respond to the call of the government.

It has been necessary to delay the dissolving of the syndicate up to the present time, as every financial interest required protection afforded by the knowledge that the syndicate was in existence prepared to make the loan a success under any circumstances.

The circular concludes: "I feel perfectly satisfied that there is no question as to the success of the loan."

DEATH TO OUTLAWS AT A MOB'S HANDS

GOOD WORK OF OKLAHOMA RANCHERS.

One Robber Shot Down and Three Others Hanged to Trees—Two of the Band Made Their Escape—Bill Doolin Captured and Is Suffering From a Wound.

Oklahoma City, O. T., Jan. 16.—Near Jaqua's store, just south of Fort Holmes, fifty miles southwest of here in the Creek nation, four outlaws met death Tuesday night at the hands of a vigilance committee composed of ranchers.

Monday night a gang of six outlaws robbed Jaqua's store and rode away with four of his horses. A posse was quickly formed and gave chase, pursuing the desperadoes all night. The robbers were overhauled and a fight occurred at Crisy Crossing, in which one of the ranchers was killed and one of the outlaws badly wounded.

During the night the bandits separated. Three of them escaped and three of them took refuge in a deserted cabin. The men in the cabin were driven out with dynamite and captured. Without any unnecessary ceremony the three were hanged to convenient trees.

They were Tom Foley, another man known as "Wild Horse," and a half-breed Choctaw named Mariana. Foley, who was the outlaw wounded by the ranchers, stated before meeting his death that two of the men who escaped were the notorious Christian brothers.

Wounded Bandit Captured.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 16.—United States Marshal Nix has received a telegram from Deputy Marshal Bill Talghman announcing the capture at Eureka Springs, Ark., Tuesday night, of the notorious outlaw Bill Doolin, alias Tom Wilson. Doolin is reported to have taken his family in a wagon from Burden, Kan., to Eureka Springs, making the journey while suffering great pain from gunshot wounds received in a recent battle with officers. A reward of $3,000 is on Doolin's head.

CONDITIONS ARE MODIFIED.

Another Bond Circular Issued from the Treasury Department.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Secretary Carlisle last night made public the following circular modifying the conditions for payment of the advertised bond issue:

"Treasury Department, Office of the Secretary, Washington, Jan. 15, 1896.—Treasury circular (No. 3, 1896) dated Jan. 6, 1896, inviting proposals for the purchase of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) of United States 4 per cent bonds, is hereby so modified that, after the payment of the first installment of 20 per cent, with accrued interest, as required in said circular, the remainder of the amounts bid may be paid in installments of 10 per cent each and accrued interest at the end of each fifteen days thereafter; but all accepted bidders may pay the whole amount of their bids at the time of the first installment, and all accepted bidders who have paid all installments previously maturing may pay the whole amount of their bids at any time not later than the maturity of the last installment. Accepted bidders who pay the whole amount at the time of the first installment or at any date thereafter, as above provided, will be entitled to receive, at the date of the payment, the whole amount of bonds awarded to them, and accepted bidders who pay by installments will be entitled to receive at the dates of such payments the amount of bonds paid for. J. G. CARLISLE, "Secretary of the Treasury."

Indiana Democratic Committee.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 16.—The new democratic state committee, elected by the district conventions last Wednesday, met here yesterday and elected Sterling R. Holt of this city chairman and John P. Franzel, president of the Merchants' national bank of this city, treasurer. It was practically decided by the committee that the state nominating convention shall be held in advance of the national convention. The date of the convention will be fixed at a meeting to be held in about three weeks. The free silver people favor an early convention. There were only a few free silver men in the meeting. The "sound-money" advocates declare that they know of only two free-silver men on the committee. These are Joel Matlock of the 4th district and Peter T. Krayer of the 13th.

To Work for Senator Allison.

Washington, Jan. 16.—If any doubt has existed of the avowed candidacy of Senator Allison for the republican nomination for president, it was dispelled yesterday by the action of the Iowa congressional delegation. With the sanction of Senator Allison himself the delegation held a conference, attended by every member in the city, and discussed plans for advancing the senator's presidential interests. A committee of three was selected to represent the Allison interests in Washington. The senator's friends believe that his strength can be demonstrated to the country by an active and organized movement in his interest.

Wants Money for Expenses.

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 16.—Elijah P. Ramsay, administrator of his father's estate, has filed a petition asking Judge Jones to make an appropriation to defray the expenses to be incurred by having an expert examine the books of the defunct Ramsay bank and those of the bank of Seiter, at Lebanon, Ill. The recent claim of the creditors that the books are complicated, and no opinion from Judge Wall to the effect that the creditors could inspect the books, forced young Ramsay to make this move.

CHICAGO VERY LIKELY TO WIN

Washington, Jan. 16.—By a poll of votes at noon it seems as if the democratic national convention would go to Chicago.

TO FIGHT THE SALOON.

Indiana Temperance Workers Gather at a Mass Meeting.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 16.—The first state mass-meeting of the Indiana Good Citizenship league, held here Wednesday, was attended by 500 delegates. President Nicholson, the author of the new temperance law, announced that the league is determined the saloon shall not dominate the politics of the state. There is some feeling between the league and the prohibitionists, who absented themselves from the meeting. The third party people want prohibition or nothing. Resolutions reiterating the things for which the organization stands were adopted. Committees representing the league will attend both state conventions for the purpose of seeing that the platforms take an advanced stand on the moral questions of the day. The league believes it will hold the balance of power at the next election.

The Fight for the Convention.

Washington, Jan. 16.—A poll of the national committee last night showed about forty members in town and the various delegations are working hard with them. New York, St. Louis and Cincinnati are all very confident, and while refusing to estimate their strength on the first ballot claim to have enough votes in sight to capture the convention. The convention will, it is thought by the best posted, be disposed of by Messrs. Gorman, Brice and Harrity, and New York claims to have secured the pledge of Senator Gorman and Chairman Harrity. If this be true she will undoubtedly win.

Are Said to Be Starving.

St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 16.—A sensation has been created by a statement in the official organ of the government that 1,000 families in St. Johns are without food, fuel, or clothing, and have nothing with which to face the rigors of the coming four months. It further states that unless they are soon relieved many will perish. Outposts are also destitute. The city clergy are arranging a meeting to prepare a plan of relief. The government will have to furnish supplies, as most of the citizens are unable to assist.

To Increase the German Navy.

London, Jan. 16.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times, commenting upon the way the news has been twisted there to the prejudice of Great Britain, says: "Nothing has been more conspicuous and deplorable during the present crisis than the total want of common sense and even common fairness displayed by the German press, especially the government organs. There is an agitation afoot to obtain from the reichstag an immediate credit of 200,000,000 marks for an increase in the navy."

Big Claim Against the Government.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 16.—Attorney-General Mylrea has been holding conferences with ex-Attorney-General O'Connor the past few days in regard to the suit instituted against the United States government under the Peck administration for over $7,000,000 furnished by Wisconsin in equipping troops and supplying munitions of war during the rebellion. The claim is to be pushed and it is believed the amount can be collected.

South African Production of Gold.

London, Jan. 16.—Prof. James Bryce, who has only just returned from a trip to South Africa, in addressing the Edinburgh chamber of commerce, said that there was no doubt that Mashonaland and Matabeleland would prove to be wealthy, but railways were necessary to develop them. He estimates that Transvaal's gold mines would produce £700,000,000 worth of gold. Should this estimate prove correct, he added, the ratio between gold and silver might need altering.

Indians Make Trouble.

Pocatello, Idaho, Jan. 16.—A band of Indians under the leadership of Jim Ballard went to the Indian agency at Ross Fork on Saturday evening and attempted to remove Thomas B. Teter, present agent, by force, and install A. W. Fisher, who was afterwards arrested and placed under bonds for instigating the present trouble. Teter called upon his Indian police and succeeded in quelling the riot.

Senator-Elect Foraker.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 16.—The two houses of the legislature met in joint session Wednesday and confirmed their respective acts in electing J. B. Foraker United States senator for the term to begin March 4, 1897. The senator-elect, in waiting at Governor Bushnell's office, being escorted to the hall of the house, was received with great applause and addressed the general assembly briefly.

A WHOLE FAMILY OVERCOME BY GAS

NEENAH PEOPLE HAVE A NARROW ESCAPE.

As It Is, One Child Is Still Unconscious and Will Probably Die—The Trial Of Banker Day Is Progressing—State Will Celebrate the Anniversary.

Neenah, Wis., Jan. 16.—[Special]—The entire family of Charles Peterson was asphyxiated by coal gas last night, but prompt medical attention saved their lives. One child is still unconscious, and will probably die.

The Trial of Banker Day.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16.—In the trial of F. T. Day yesterday it was decided to try him on the charge of having accepted a deposit of $111 from August Burkhardt on May 16, 1893. The case was opened by Assistant District Attorney Bell, who gave figures to show the bank was insolvent at the time the deposit was made, and at that time President F. T. Day owed the bank about $300,000, for which he had given no security. J. V. Quarles made an address, the principal point of which was that it was not right to imprison men for an error in judgment, and that all that could be charged against Mr. Day was his judgment was bad in making loans.

Wisconsin Will Celebrate in 1898. Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16.—Wisconsin will celebrate in 1898 the fiftieth anniversary of her admission into the union. This was decided upon yesterday at a gathering of representative men from all parts of the badger commonwealth.

NO WAR POSSIBLE.

Eminent British Statesman Upholds the Monroe Doctrine.

London, Jan. 16.—The Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, speaking at Manchester last night, said that it was not in human nature that the present condition of things in the Transvaal should continue. "Whether it was called suzerainty or not, there could be no mistake that we controlled the external relations of the Transvaal, and would admit no foreign interference," and, further, he believed that no foreign country was prepared to dispute that doctrine. Mr. Balfour asserted that the British government had heartily concurred in the Monroe doctrine seventy years ago, and he believed that if they were to ransack England from end to end, search the most private documents in the foreign office since then, examine the ministers and the ordinary public, or even the lunatics, it would be impossible to find a single individual who ever desired to see what would be called a forward policy adopted by Great Britain either in North or South America. Mr. Balfour referred long and eloquently to the horrors of a war between Great Britain and America. "We may be dreamers with idealists, but the time must come when some statesman of authority, more fortunate even than President Monroe, will lay down the doctrine that between the English-speaking peoples war is impossible, and that any one endangering the peace will have committed a crime against civilization."

WOOL MEN PROTEST.

National Association Declares the Sheep Industry Is Being Ruined.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 16.—The Ohio Wool Growers' association, in annual session here, declared that under the operation of the free wool tariff act of August, 1894, the sheep of the United States have declined in numbers from 47,273,563 in January, 1895, to less than 40,000,000 at the present time. The resolutions state that in order to restore the flocks of the United States, supply the demands of our consumption, and for the proper protection of this industry, the association demands of the Fifty-fourth congress that a specific duty of 12 cents be placed on the two grades of clothing wool known in the McKinley act as numbers 1 and 2, and an increase of 1 cent per pound each year until the fine grade known as No. 2 reaches 15 cents. On the grades of carpet wool known as Nos. 1 and 2 in the McKinley act, they ask and demand 8 cents per pound. An amendment was offered and supported by five members requesting congress to retain the tariff rates in the bill now pending in the senate.

Queen Writes to the Sultan.

Constantinople, Jan. 16.—Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador, had an audience with the sultan yesterday and presented an autograph letter from the queen.

London, Jan. 16.—The Daily News assumes that the letter which the queen has dispatched to the sultan can only be a plea for humanity, an appeal to the sultan's better nature or a womanly and royal protest against the hideous and horrible Armenian outrages.

Illinois Miners Strike.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 16.—The miners at the Wolschlag and Bismarck mines on the T. P. and W. and Iowa Central are out on a strike. They have been receiving 53 cents a ton for mining, but notice was posted that a reduction would be made to 45 cents. The men refused to accept the cut. There are about 100 men employed at the two mines. The men say they cannot live at the low price offered them.

AT A FESTAL BOARD THE HUNDREDS MET BANQUET AND BALL OF THE CATHOLIC LEAGUE.

Speeches Were Made, Songs Were Sung, Recitations Were Heard and There Was Good Cheer For All—Names of Those Present—Other Social Happenings.

HE spacious hall of the Union Catholic League was filled with merry-makers last night, the occasion being the second annual banquet and ball of the League. The rooms were handsomely decorated, that part having been in charge of Misses Lizzie Murray, Nellie Walsh, Agnes Joyce, Mamie Schmidley and Messrs. A. J. Wilbur, R. J. Dunn, Dan Luby and Fred Viney. Smith's full orchestra furnished the music and the banquet was in charge of the Ladies' League. J. L. Mahoney was the toastmaster, and the program was as follows:

H. M. WEAVER WAS SURPRISED

Modern Woodmen and Their Ladies Descend Upon His Home.

A delegation of Modern Woodmen surprised H. M. Weaver last evening in honor of his fifty third birthday and presented him with a handsome pin emblem of the order, the speech being made by Charles Brooks. The affair was so carefully planned that Mr. Weaver had received no inkling of what was coming and to say he was astonished scarcely expresses it. Among the guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames—
John Collins, A. J. Hines, John Mastersen, Philip Gundle, Clarence Brown, Charles Carpenter, Levi Caniff, T. D. Donnelly,
C. E. Brown, Charles Brooks, George Palmer, John Hill, Clinton Brown, W. M. Boyce, Adam Apfel,

Misses—
Mattie Pratt, Messrs—
John Lynch.

OTHER SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

THERE will be a social after dancing school tomorrow evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. L. Croft entertained the I. M. O. Whist club at their home on Washington street last night.

A VERY enjoyable social was given at the Congregational church last night and all who attended spent a delightful evening.

ROCK River Encampment No. 3, I. O. O. F. has arranged for public installation and a dance at Concordia hall, Friday evening, January 17. Installation ceremonies will begin promptly at 7:15 o'clock. Following the installation, which will occupy about an hour, dancing will be the order of the evening. Tickets to the dance will be fifty cents.

THE TELEPHONE CREW IS HERE

Worked Their Way From Milwaukee to Jamesville Fixing Toll Lines

The Wisconsin Telephone company's crew arrived in the city last evening, coming from Milwaukee and White-water, and intend to remain in the city for a few days. They have just completed the copper line from White-water to this city and were today tightening the wires on the Johnson line, and removing the old Emerald Grove line. Superintendent of construction, T. J. Gallagher of Milwaukee, was overseeing the work, while the crew is composed of Foremen W. Thornton and A. Zarbeck; Linemen James Froher, G. Germain, George Thornton, J. Naylor, J. Madden, J. Scanlan, J. Marquardt and W. Powell.

Porter Family Thrown From Their Wagon—Cattle Mysteriously Disappear—Social Events Are Planned—The Week at Milton Junction—Prayer Meetings Continue.

Porter, Jan. 16.—What came near being a serious accident occurred early Thursday morning. John Collins' family were returning from a wedding at Edward Ford's. While driving through a gate, the horses made too short a turn, tipping the vehicle over, and throwing the occupants to the ground. Aside from a few bruises luckily no further damage was done. Rev. Father Barrett, of Minneapolis, was a visitor last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons, are rejoicing over the safe arrival of a son at their home on last Thursday. All doing well. Mrs. Thomas Burns is suffering from a severe attack of quinsy. Miss Lizzie Tiernan spent Sunday at her parental home here. Mrs. Bert Montgomery has been very ill of quinsy but is convalescing. Miss Maggie Kennedy left for Chicago last Wednesday to visit for a few weeks. Mr. Siernan, of Hartford, Wis., is the guest of relatives in this vicinity. Standing room was at a premium to those who attended the "Porter Glee Club" dance in Fulton on last Friday evening, but, notwithstanding the large crowd, everyone enjoyed themselves exceedingly. The next party will be a mask ball Friday evening, Jan. 31. Dance tickets 50 cents. Basket supper, and everyone is cordially invited. Miss May Tracy, of Indian Ford, was a pleasant visit on last Monday. Four head of cattle mysteriously disappeared from B. Peach's barn on Saturday night. Whether the animals are stolen or strayed is not yet learned. On last Wednesday a twelve pound son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Pound. On Friday the infant was taken ill and is now in a precarious condition.

THE GOSSIP OF THE JUNCTION.

Personal News Notes—Meetings Held Each Evening—Other Happenings.

Milton Junction, Jan. 16.—Mrs. Ed. Holston and Charles Clarke spent part of this week at Walworth, having been called there by the illness of Mr. Clarke's mother. The junior society of the Y. P. S. C. E. will give an entertainment at the Seventh Day Baptist church next Saturday night. Miss Mary McCarthy, of Albion, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chadwick. The meetings being held at the Seventh Day Baptist church each evening are increasing in interest and are well attended by people of all denominations. Frank Gray has been confined to the house for some time with a severe attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Kittie Geisler and son Clifford have returned to their home at Hartford City, Ind. Six or eight members of the I. O. G. T. went to Indian Ford Thursday night to attend a social. Miss Ina Ellsworth has begun her winter term of school at Newville. Rev. Wotton of Albion Corners, comes over every night to preach at the revival meetings. He is giving us some grand sermons. Skating is all the rage. All of the young folks and some of the old ones exercise their muscles at this delightful pastime.

HERMAN HEISE AT EVANSVILLE.

Now Kanning the Tribune and Enterprise For C. A. Libby.

The last issue of the Evansville Tribune publishes the following under the heading "Introduction."

"I take pleasure in introducing to the public and patrons of this office, Mr. Herman Heise of Jamesville, Wis., who comes to us with the highest of recommendations from the entire press of the 'Bower City,' without even party exception, who will take charge of this office and for whom we bespeak a hearty welcome, he being an able, honest writer who will do justice as an independent Republican during the coming campaign and in whom our republican friends may place the most implicit confidence to fight their battles to a victorious end, and we are glad to be able to furnish with the inauguration of our new city such a man in its newspaper work as we believe has long been needed in this place, instead of the boyish work you have been obliged to put up with in the past in this line, we believe we are now introducing you to a whole man in every respect able, active, intelligent and honest, if whom you implicitly trust to strike a telling blow right where it is most needed in just the right time and just the right place which we believe will be duly appreciated by the most intelligent classes at least, and as action, with the pen, speaks louder than words we leave him with this short introduction to prove his worthiness by his works."

Important Sale of Nice Furniture at Private Sale.

We are breaking up housekeeping for the present and offer for sale our household goods at about one-half value. What we have for sale is first class and if you want anything of the kind this is a rare opportunity. Sale begins Friday morning, January 17, and will continue through Saturday, the 18th. Prices right, terms strictly cash. We offer for rent our flat also. It is the best quarters in Jamesville, Waverly flat, North Main street. Don't come till Friday morning.

AN IMPERIAL GRANDFATHER.

Francis Joseph is Adored by His Admirers Subjects.

A rumor goes through Austria that the Emperor Francis Joseph intends to pay a visit to the queen of England in the present month, says the New York Journal. It is more than probable that this rumor will not be realized, at least not at this epoch, for the month of August is the only time in the year when the emperor is able to enjoy a quiet family life. At Ischl, a small, beautifully situated watering place in the Salzkammergut, the emperor and the empress of Austria possess a pretty villa. It was at Ischl that they first met, he a young emperor of some 20 years, she a sweet, fair girl of 16 summers; ever since they come to Ischl as to a home that has all the remembrances of the happiest days of their lives. It is there in the quiet country house that they love to gather their children and their grandchildren around them. But this year there is but little peace for the emperor. Royal visits, audiences, councils with the ministers, are a l'ordre du jour and the attention of Europe turns to the little Alpine town on the river Traun, where the emperor of Austria is working. We do not want to carry owls to Athens, therefore we need not say that the emperor is the busiest worker of his country nor that he is the very best soldier in his army, nor need we speak of his deep sense of duty, but we do want to speak of the kindly, fatherly monarch. If the emperor one day really goes to England, then he goes as a friend to the queen and to the nation and not as the bearer of a political or diplomatic plan; not only as the ever-courteous sovereign but as a warm hearted human being. The emperor is adored by his people and for a good reason. There is not an Austrian living who is not ready to believe that if it depended only on the good will of the sovereign there would be prosperity in the vast states of Austria. But alas! there are misfortune and misery enough left, tears and cries of anguish which do not reach the emperor's ear. Alas! For if it could be otherwise, then, indeed, the Austrians would be a happy people, for none can be kinder than this imperial grandfather.

FRENCH AUCTIONS.

Lighting a Candle When Anything Is Put Up for Sale.

The French mode of conducting auctions is rather curious. In sales of importance the affair is placed in the hands of a notary, who, for the time being, becomes an auctioneer. The auctioneer is provided with a small number of wax tapers, each capable of burning about five minutes. As soon as a bid is made one of these tapers is placed in full view of the interested parties, and lighted. If, before it expires, another bid is offered, it is immediately extinguished, and a fresh taper placed in its stead, and so on until one flickers and dies out itself, when the last bid becomes irrevocable. This simple plan prevents all contention among rival bidders and affords a reasonable time for reflection before making a higher offer than the one preceding. By this means, too, the auctioneer is prevented from exercising undue influence upon the bidders, or hastily accepting the bid of a favorite.

MODERN WOODMEN WANT MONEY

Will Require $2,000 To Defray the Expenses of the Picnic.

Members of the local camp of Modern Woodmen say that $2,000 is needed to defray the expenses for the big picnic to take place in June.

"The city of Madison is only waiting for a chance to get the picnic again," one of them remarked, and there is little doubt but what the $2,000 could be easily raised among the hotel and refreshment men. These lines of business would receive the greatest benefit.

GEORGE TRAVER PAINFULLY HURT.

Clothing Caught in a Machine and He Was Pulled Into the Wheel.

George Traver, of Lima, while working with his partner, Mr. Wolfrom, sinking a well, became the victim of an accident. As he was reaching through the drive belt it caught his coat and drew him into the fly wheel, breaking his collar bone and cutting and bruising him very severely. Dr. Maxon, of Milton Junction, dressed his injuries.

Annual Meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Janesville, will be held at the Association Building, on Friday evening, January 17th, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting the officers and directors for the ensuing year will be chosen and any other business transacted which may properly come before the Association.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Once Believed to Be the Only Cure for Piles and Rectal Diseases.

A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.

Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles for years, and after trying the many lotions, salves, ointments and so called cures without cure or relief, give up the hope of a final cure, rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary, since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure; a remedy which is approved by the medical profession, as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure (not merely relief) in any form of Piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of marvelous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate.

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from Piles for forty years and from itching Piles for twenty years, and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure has effectively cured me.

Dr. J. W. Morgan, Leonardville, Kan., writes: I have used a box of Pyramid Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I had used in the past twenty-two years.

James Jamerson, Dubuque, Iowa, says: I suffered from Piles for six years; have just used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am a well man.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkly, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

The Pyramid Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cts. and $1.00 per package. A book on cause and cure of Piles will be sent by mail, by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1309—Edmund Spenser, English poet of the Elizabethan era, died; born 1533.

1622—Jean Baptiste Poquelin Moliere, noted French humorous writer, born; died 1743.

1807—Richard Savage, the "Unhappy Poet," born; died 1743.

1794—Edward Gibbon, historian, author of "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," died; born 1737.

1807—Charles Henry Davis, rear admiral U. S. N., born in Boston; died 1877.

1800—Battle of Corunna and death of Sir John Moore. Corunna, 1800 Balaklava, owes its celebrity to the lines of a poet. Byron declared that Wolfe's lines on the burial of Sir John Moore were the finest in the English language. When analyzed, they give a true picture of the events with which they deal. Moore was killed by a cannon ball while inspiring his men to defend the walls against the French. It was a forlorn hope to gain time for the fleet to make landing and the troops to embark.

1815—General Henry Wager Halleck, soldier, born in Westernville, Oneida county, N. Y.; died 1872.

1803—Frances Anne Kemble-Butler (Fanny Kemble) died in London; born 1811.

NO NEED OF STOCK JOBBERS.

Mr. Cleveland's lack of faith in the people has been rebuked. It was high time he found out that somebody besides a Wall street syndicate was interested in the nation's credit.

The bonds have been taken at figures far better than the syndicate offered, the gold reserve is safe, and the only thing to regret about it all is that the total of indebtedness against the country should have been brought to such a point in one administration.

Senators would better do something about increasing the revenue of the government, or else do less talking about increasing the navy. The navy can't be increased without money. Let the senate pass the House tariff bill, which would add $4,000,000 a year to our revenue; then it might be in order to spend some money on our navy.

If a man insulted another and then as soon as the other fellow showed fight should say: "Oh, I insulted you during a moment of irritation, which has now passed," what would usually be the result? That is the manner in which Emperor William explains his insult to England.

It now appears that Mr. Cleveland became jealous of the Olney boom for the democratic nomination, and instructed his friends to throw cold water on it by declaring that the late Secretary Gresham, not Mr. Olney, originated that Venezuela policy.

Somebody in the senate seems to be afraid that the country would forget that the silver men have a majority in that body.

The sale of the democratic national convention seems to have been overlooked by most of the democratic editors.

Joe Blackburn ought to write a book on "How I lost my confidence in being re-elected to the senate."

The enthusiasm of youth causes a young man so bring the same intense interest to the subject of clothes as to everything else. He becomes particular what to wear. How to wear it. Latest color and make of it. All must meet his ideas. For such good dressers ordinary ready made clothing is not always up to the mark. That's where we come in with Adler's goods. They are up to snuff at all times on style and workmanship. Frank H. Baack.

A Motorman's Superstition.

"A motorman will allow his car to run over a dog without any compunctions, but when it comes to a cat on the track it brings out what little superstition there may be in the man, and most of the motormen have a little," said a conductor. The car had come to a sudden stop, and all the passengers who had noticed a little kitten in front of the car stood up and looked back to see if its mangled remains were on the track. "Why, I have known my motorman to run his car back half a square at night time to see if he had killed a cat," said the conductor. "The headlight on the car seems to attract them after dark, and they will stand in front of an approaching car and their eyes gleaming like balls of fire, they seem to make no effort to get out of the way and disappear from the motorman's view under the end of the car, leaving him in doubt as to whether he had killed them or not. I guess when they get out of the range of the headlight they realize their position and scurry out of the way."—Columbus Dispatch.

Lutherans in America.

The growth of the Lutheran church in this country during the last few years has been phenomenal, especially in the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Idaho, North and South Dakota, Washington, Oregon and Montana. It has been said, indeed, that "every fourth person one meets between Chicago and Seattle is by birth or baptism a Lutheran." Recent statistics show that in the eight states named out of a total communicant membership which includes all denominations, Protestant and Roman Catholic, numbering 1,419,895, the Protestant bodies have a total of 766,219, and of this number 352,196 are claimed by the Lutherans. The census of 1890 proved that more than one-half of the Lutheran strength in ministers and members lies west of Chicago. According to that census the aggregates for the entire country were as follows, but, of course, the figures are now much larger; Ministers 4,591, organizations 8,595, church edifices 6,701, seating capacity 2,205,635, value of church property $25,060,354, communicants 1,231,072.

WILL NOT SETTLE INSURANCE SUITS

COUNTY BOARD REFUSES TO MAKE A COMPROMISE.

Repudiate the Proposition of the Companies Having Policies on the Buildings That Burned—Keeley Law Regulations Changed—Other Work Done.

The county board today refused to compromise the county's claim against the insurance companies, having policies on the old county building; altered the plan of committing inebriates to the Keeley cure; closed up the odds and ends of the business, and adjourned.

Supervisor McLean's resolution regarding general appropriations was passed, and other orders were adopted as follows: Paying Clerk McIntyre $75 for work on the purchasing committee; paying the chairman $10 for countersigning orders; to print the proceedings of the board.

District Attorney Jackson then reported the progress in the case against the insurance companies.

Supervisor Kendall moved that if no better offer could be secured, that the county settle for the sum offered—$681. The motion was lost by a vote of 25 to 5.

Supervisor Bowles' motion, authorizing the publishing of the boards proceedings passed, as did also motion to pay the sums appropriated; transferring the amount received from the state because of the insane, to the general fund; and to insure the county buildings.

Regarding The Keeley Cure.

Supervisor Wilder then introduced the following resolution which was adopted:

"WHEREAS, by Chapter 203, of the laws of 1893, any habitual drunkard residing in the state, may, by petition to the county court of the county wherein he resides, obtain an order permitting him to take treatment at some institution for the cure of drunkenness at the expense of such county, which law in its present form we consider questionable legislation, therefore be it:

RESOLVED, That hereafter in no event shall such petition be considered by the county court unless the same shall be signed by the chairman of the town, or the supervisors of the village or ward in which such inebriate resides."

Supervisor More moved that the chairman be given a vote of thanks which passed, as did also the motion to pay the per diem and mileage of members; Supervisor Vankirk's motion that hereafter the books and bills of the insane asylum be kept at the county clerk's office. After some minor routine work had been done adjournment was taken.

Officers Fees Are Reduced.

Sup. More presented a resolution providing that the justice fees in case of tramps, vagrants, indecent exposure of person and disorderly conduct be 50 cents and no more. The officer making the arrest shall receive that sum only, except when a prisoner shall be duly committed according to law to the county jail. Then such officer shall be entitled to 5 cents per mile for the distance actually traveled and railroad fare of such prisoner when traveling by rail from the place of trial to the place of commitment by the most usual route. No telephone or telegraph messages will be allowed or paid by the county to be used in such prosecutions and no sum in excess of 10 cents per meal shall be allowed to such officer for the board of any prisoner in any of these prosecutions. The resolution passed by a vote of 28 to 4.

Concerning The Poor House

Supervisor Egerton presented the following resolution which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The judge of the municipal court is sentencing a certain class of vagrants to the poor house for terms of from two months to six months each.

Resolved, That we condemn the practice as being unjust to the tax payers of Rock county and to the honest poor that are inmates of said poor house, and that the county clerk forward to said municipal judge, a copy of this resolution.

Supervisor Smith made a report concerning the bills for the treatment of inebriates, recommending that the matter be left in the hands of a committee of three, Chairman Tarrant appointing as such committee, Supervisors Smith, Powers and Wilder.

Superintendent of the Poor S. B. Kenyon presented his annual report, showing that he had received $4,069.50. Paid out $4,214.06, leaving a balance due him of $144.56. The whole number of people receiving aid in his district the past year amounts to fully 650.

Superintendent Powers presented the report of Superintendent of the Poor George M. Appleby of Beloit, which was adopted. The report showed that he had received during the year $2637.43 and paid out $2,544.34, leaving a balance of $93.13.

MORTGAGE IS WORTH EXACTLY $3,727.93

THAT AMOUNT IS GIVEN AS CORRECT.

S. B. Smith Announces That These Were the Figures Accepted By the Bank in Settling the Controversy—Value of Gazette Advertising Is Shown.

The correct answer to "that problem" is $3,727.93.

This is the authorized statement made by Stanley B. Smith, of the First National Bank, to whom the proposition was made regarding the transfer of the document. Several of The Gazette's correspondents got the correct answer, but more did not. Many of the answers received were not published, owing to the fact that the method used in arriving at the conclusion was not given.

The problem, however, has demonstrated the value of publicity secured through The Gazette. Answers were received from all parts of the county beside Kenosha, Wisconsin; Harvard and Woodstock, Ill., and several other places. The sum was not printed with the idea of receiving answer to the same, but the many answers received showed that people read The Gazette and read it understandingly.

The following answers have been received since the last lot were published, and with this list The Gazette will "call off" the competition.

From Woodstock, Illinois.

WOODSTOCK, ILL., JAN. 13.—EDITOR GAZETTE—I notice in different issues of your daily this week the following proposition, and I send you what I think is the correct business solution of the same:

"A man has a mortgage for $4,000, to run nine years, and bearing five per cent interest, payable annually, which he offers to sell. What should he be paid for it, that the buyer may realize six per cent annually on the investment?"

At five per cent the annual interest on this mortgage is $200; this is six per cent of the investment required for this income. Investment then for this is $3,333.33—balance of mortgage is $666.67. This is due in nine years, and practically drawing no interest, hence its present value should be computed on a six per cent compound interest basis. Dividing $666.67 by $1.689479 the amount of $1 for given time is $394.59 plus its present value. The two amounts, $3,333.33 plus $394.59 plus, equals $3,727.92 plus, what buyer should pay for mortgage. A. J. KINGMAN.

One From Orfordville.

ORFORDVILLE, JAN. 16.—EDITOR GAZETTE—Regarding the problem published in The Gazette. If I understand it correctly the purchaser wishes to make an average of 6 per cent annually on 5 per cent mortgage buying it at a discount. $4,000 at 5 per cent, equals $200 for one year and for nine years $1,800. $4,000 at 6 per cent, equals $240 for one year and for nine years is $2,160. $4,000 at 1 per cent, equals $40 and for one year and for nine years is $360 or 1,800. To get his 6 per cent on his investment he would have to purchase it at 1 per cent discount which is $40 a square or $360 for nine years. Subtracting this discount from $4,000 leaves $3,640 which the purchaser pays.

One From Calville.

CALVILLE, Wis., Jan. 14.—EDITOR GAZETTE—My solution of the mortgage problem is as follows:

$4,000 at 5 per cent, for one year amounts to $200; $200 interest for nine years amounts to $1,800. Now what must the man pay for the mortgage and get six per cent on his money for a term of nine years?

Now, $3,333.33 at 6 per cent, will yield just $200. Therefore, if that amount will bring $200 interest in one year, in nine years it will bring $1,800. Hence the mortgage must be bought for the sum of $3,333.33. This is rather a heavy discount but we must remember we are living under a democratic administration and good securities sell cheap.

A. T. LAWRENCE.

One From Harvard, Ill.

HARVARD, ILL., Jan. 16.—EDITOR GAZETTE—This is "correct. To find the true present worth of a bond or mortgage having a number of years to run and bearing any rate of annual interest that would afford different rates of interest annually divide the compound interest on one dollar at the required rate for the given time by the required rate; multiply the quotient by the interest on the bond or mortgage for one year at the given rate; to the product add the face value of the mortgage and divide the sum by the compound amount of one dollar at the required rate for the given time. This rule makes $3,727.93 the correct answer.

D. F. O'CONNOR, Auctioneer.

A Magnolia Answer.

MAGNOLIA, JAN. 14.—EDITOR GAZETTE—As I understand it a mortgage for $4,000 running 9 years at 5 per cent multiply $4,000 by 1.45 which is the amount of $1 for 9 years at 5 per cent will give $5,800. Divide $5,800 by $1.54 which is the amount of $1 at 6 per cent for 9 years will give $3,766.23379 which now multiply by $1.54 will prove whether the sum is worth d correct or not. It gives an answer of $5,799.99996 which shows to be correct, therefore the man should give for the mortgage $3,766.23376. C. C. HOWARD

PARLORS BANKED WITH FLOWERS

Mrs. C. D. Stevens Entertains Her Friends in Delightful Fashion.

Frappance floated from banks of palms, ferns, roses and lilies in the parlors of Mrs. C. D. Stevens this afternoon. The mantels were almost hidden from view by the graceful leaves of palms and a delicate tracery of ferns, while through the green peeped masses of bloom. The floral decorations were by Misses Long and Hodson. An elaborate luncheon was served at 5 o'clock and later tables were formed for six handed euchre. Throughout the afternoon there was music by the Orpheus Mandolin club. Those who enjoyed the charm of Mrs. Stevens' hospitality were:

KNEW NOT HIS NAME FOR MANY YEARS

ADAM R. RICHARDSON TESTIFIES IN COURT.

Said That He Supposed His Name Was Adam R. Hart Until He Ran Away to Join the Federal Army—The Last Case Testimony Nearly All In.

The somewhat noted "Richardson land case" is still busying Judge Clementson, a dozen attorneys, and a witness or two, in the circuit court chambers. There is quite an array of legal talent interested in the action, but the proceedings are exceedingly dull and uninteresting to one who does not understand the points of law involved. Adam R. Richardson, the plaintiff, was sworn today and testified that he lived with an uncle named Charles Hart up to the time he ran away to fight in the rebellion. Up to that time he was not aware, he said, that his name was Adam R. Richardson and not Adam R. Hart, as he had supposed.

In all probability the taking of testimony will be finished today.

I. C. Sloan, H. S. Sloan, William Smith and Charles E. Pierce appear for the plaintiff and A. A. Jackson, W. A. Jackson, B. B. Eldredge and Whitehead, Matheson & Smith for the defendants. Several other attorneys who are interested in the matter to varying extents are close listeners to the proceedings.

TOOK VOWS AT CUPID'S ALTAR

ANIMAL REASONING.

Curiosity Is Apparent and Also Resentment at Restraint.

The Rev. Dr. Charles J. Adams, in a recent letter to the Kingston Freeman, incidentally relates the following: "That man is more discontented with things as they are—that man has more imagination—than the lower animals, I do not for a moment question. But that the lower animal has both reason and imagination, in common with man, is as unquestionably true as that the sun shines. But the question is now the one of curiosity and discontent. Cows rebel against restraint. A gentleman in Iowa told me about his father's wanting the cows in his farmyard to eat clover hay. They would not do so because they preferred timothy hay. A brother farmer advised him to in some way have the cows approach the clover hay, and then drive them roughly away, striking them over the snouts with a fork handle. He did so, and the result was that they ate all the clover hay and wanted more. Here was a clear case of rebellion against restraint or prohibition. Another farmer told me that he built a fence about a straw stack, placing the rails upon posts a couple of feet high. Against that fence the cattle rebelled so emphatically that they stuck their heads under the fence and licked up the old, broken and soiled straws on the outside, over which they had walked before, and which they could not have been induced to touch had it not been for the fence. The fence was an appetizer to the cattle, just as the limitations of knowledge are appetizers to man. And in one case as in the other the appetite was not physical. What the cattle wanted was liberty. The appetite was not of the body, but of the soul.

"I received from Pittsburg the story of a spider that decorates its web, as it weaves it, with bits of logwood, which it takes from a box—with no other possible purpose in mind than that of decoration. Another spider weaves a web with broad walls on it—made by placing the threads more closely than they are placed elsewhere in the web. For what purpose? Simply for the purpose of decoration, or that it may have a place of outing or promenade; for another web is woven for the purpose of catching food. That spider had an imagination. It was not satisfied with ordinary things. It wanted something extraordinary. Ask the man who has hunted antelope on the prairies, and he will tell you that he raises a flag and depends on the antelope's curiosity bringing it within range of his ball. Around the flag that the hunter raises the antelope moves in ever-decreasing circles till the report comes that is prophetic of its death."

RETURNED JUST IN TIME.

Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered Stops a Hanging.

From the Washington Star: Ex-Sheriff Blakeslee of Comanche county, Nebraska, told a story of his experience in office to a Star writer the other day. "I never hanged a man," he said. "The vigilance committee usually settled hanging offenses outside of the courts. Then we were not fixed for taking care of many prisoners. When I was sheriff there were only three rooms to the jail, and all of them small. One I slept in, another I used for an office and the other I kept my prisoners in when I had any."

"One time I received a man charged with murdering his partner. There was a little doubt about his guilt, so the vigilance committee turned him over to me. The prisoner and the murdered man had left together, and somebody found the partner's body in the bushes. A few miles farther on they caught the prisoner, who had a gun and other property known to have belonged to the murdered man. It was a bad case, the body being mutilated as to be almost unrecognizable, but the prisoner said he was innocent, and I never had a more sociable fellow or better card player in the jail. He was the only one there, and after I really got acquainted with him we would play old sledge until late at night and then bunk together."

"He was tried and convicted, but it made no difference with him. It was my first hanging, and we got the gallows built, the prisoner watching the work and making comments on it. The rope came and he saw it. 'Bill,' said he, 'yo' ain't no good as a sheriff. Don't yo' know that 'ere rope ought ter be soaked? I don't want this affair of ours to go off any other way than smooth. Yo' go soak that rope.' So I soaked the rope, the prisoner helping me, and the night before the hanging we sat down to play old sledge. He said: 'Bill, I ain't goin' to interfere none, an' I don't blame yo', an' no man kin say that I tried ter run or didn't die game, but I want yo' to promise me, if yo' ever meet that partner of mine, yo' will shorely shoot 'im fer gettin' me hung. He's alive all right, and it's shore mean fer 'im to vamoose an' git me in trouble.'"

"I promised him, and we went on with the game. About 10 o'clock a man came to the window and shouted for me, then he tried the door of the office, and it wasn't locked. He walked right in and said: 'Hello, Jim! Hello, Bill!' It was the man we thought was murdered. Jim stood up and said: 'You're a purty pardner to leave me hyar to be hanged. They don't allow no shootin' irons hyar, so we kain't settle but one way. Spuck!' Then there was the prettiest fight I ever saw, Jim pounding his partner until he called for quits. We all went to see the judge that night and called off the hanging, knowing the man who we thought had been murdered. Then the two men went away and we never saw them again, neither did we ever find out who the corpse was that we picked up in the bushes."

INSANITY IS TABOOED.

Prominent Wisconsin Lawyer Who Will Not Enter That Defense.

From the Milwaukee Journal: The following story is told of John Brennan of Stevens Point as a criminal lawyer: The story goes that a farmer who had killed his wife in the northern part of the state sent for Mr. Brennan to defend him, offering to deed him his farm if he would take the case. Brennan wanted his pay in advance, and so the farmer made over the property to him. The murder was a most brutal and cold-blooded one, and Brennan knew there was but one plea that might save his client from a life sentence, and that was insanity. The trial was one of the fiercest ever fought in a Wisconsin court. The attorney for the defense occupied a whole day in his closing address to the jury, and the effort was a masterly one. The jury found the man insane, and he was sent to Oshkosh. Once there, he improved rapidly, and in a few weeks was discharged. His first act was to sue Brennan for the recovery of his property, on the ground that he was insane at the time of deeding it. In the face of his own argument that the man was insane, Brennan could do nothing and the farmer won his case. Brennan has blacklisted insanity as a defense for murder.

Love and Religion.

Here is an interesting story of the effect of Christianity upon the love-making of Ceylon. I find it in The Missionary Review of the World: "It is the custom among the Singhalese," writes a missionary of Ceylon, "to receive a dowry with the bride; and this varies from 50 rupees to 20,000 rupees. A dowerless girl has not much chance nowadays of getting married. However, there are exceptions. A young Christian man fell in love with a very poor, fatherless girl, who at the time was also a Buddhist. He wished to marry her, but would not do so until she became a Christian. He put her under the care of a catechist and his wife, who taught her, and he paid for her board and lodging. After a few months she was baptized, and a month later married, the bridegroom paying for her wedding attire."

He Took One.

Timothy McShane had been arrested on the charge of stealing a costly gilt chair from the residence of Mrs. Hightone. On being arraigned before the judge, his honor asked Tim what he had to say for himself, to which Tim replied: "Shure, yer honor, Oi will explain th' bull t'ing to yez. I want to say Mrs. Hightone on business fer me boss; Oi rung th' bell an' a sarvint kim to th' dure, and whin Oi axed to say Mrs. Hightone, the sarvint towld me to go into the parlor an' take a chair. 'Well?' said the judge. 'Well, Oi tuk this yan.'"

SPARROWS IN REVOLT.

They Wouldn't Put Up with the Presence of a Stranger Bird.

Probably more than 1,000 people stopped by the frog pond on Boston common between 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening and looked up into the trees, relates the Boston Transcript. It was apparent that something unusual was going on. The air was filled with birds uttering sharp cries, and the din was kept up for over half an hour.

A kingbird started all the trouble. Where he came from nobody knew. One of the sparrow sentinels awoke from a doze in the branches of a tall tree on the north side of the pond and spied the intruder. His sharp cries for help brought a number of other sentinels from trees in the vicinity, and they gathered around the kingbird at safe distances and chattered. The kingbird sat still. Then the sparrows decided to summon a "posse." It did not take long, for sparrows of all ages and all sizes had begun to crowd around to see what was the trouble. Within two minutes after the first alarm the air in the vicinity was black with sparrows. Then began a vigorous and concerted attack on the kingbird. They darted at him from in front and behind, from all sides and from above, all the time keeping up a screaming that caused the people on the walks to stop and see the fun. Now, anybody who has ever seen a kingbird harry a big hen hawk knows that a kingbird is game, but the thousand or more sparrows in the air began to make it uncomfortable for the intruder. Finally when the kingbird saw the people gathering on the walks he began to fear an attack from below, and, with what, in bird language, probably stands for a "hoarse, mocking laugh," the villain fled over the public garden. A small body of sparrows gave him an escort out of sight, but most of them remained to talk over the affair.

USE DR. KILMER'S SURE HEADACHE CURE

COUGHS AND COLDS.

ELY'S PINEOLA BALM is a sure remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes quickly, abates the cough, and renders expectation easy. CONSUMPTIVES will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their case to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold, or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Green Balm. Both remedies are pleasant to use. Team Balm, 60cts, per bottle. Pineola Balm, 50c. Sold by druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.
